Teacher guide

Course objective - Analyze how line, shape, color, value, texture, space, emphasis, balance, rhythm, and unity affect meaning in original compositions.

Suggested time: 45-60 minutes

Learning focus: Use art vocabulary to compare and revise two abstract sketches you create: one calm composition and one crowded or tense composition.

Teaching sequence: Review prior instruction and model the first prompt with its answer. Assign one four-prompt page at a time. Ask for a check, a reason, or a specific example. Use the reflection ticket to plan the next lesson; it is not a standardized mastery score.

Model prompt: Define emphasis.

Model answer: A focal area given greater visual attention.

Support options

AIG: justify a second method or create a transfer example. 504: follow the learner's plan for time, breaks, format, and reduced copying. EC: model steps and accept aligned oral, drawn, or written responses. ESL: preview vocabulary, use bilingual references, and rehearse before writing.

Source and scope: Original discussion and drawing prompts. Learners create two abstract sketches on separate paper; no artwork reproductions or ready-made composition studies are included.

Reflection exit ticket

Complete independently. Refer to your completed practice, but explain in your own words. This checks reflection and application, not a test score prediction.

1. State the focus of this resource in your own words.
2. Create one accurate example connected to the practice.
3. Explain how you checked that example.
4. Identify one possible error and show a correction.
5. Name one specific next practice step and explain why it will help.

Reflection criteria

Items 1–4: 2 points for an accurate, specific response; 1 for a partly correct response; 0 for a missing or unrelated response. Accept justified alternatives. Item 5 is an unscored planning reflection. Feedback should identify a next teaching move, not label a learner.
